Annual Survey of Social Work Programs

The Annual Survey of Social Work Programs collects information about social work programs, students, and graduates. This information is used by the social work education community in research, program planning, and advocacy work. Your participation is critical in obtaining a complete picture of social work education.

This year, a brief version of the survey is being used while CSWE reviews the survey instrument and reports. There are a series of questions at the end of survey to gather opinions about what members need. There are three mandatory questions, which are marked with an *, which are used for accreditation and membership billing.

You can find a printable copy of the survey instrument on the CSWE website.

NOTE: If you need to pause your data submission, please proceed to the next page before closing the page. Once you move to the next page, the system will save your information. To resume completing your survey where you left off, click your original access link.

If you have any questions about the survey, please contact Ryan Bradshaw (rbradshaw@cswe.org).

Our records indicate that your institution is:

Annual Survey Feedback

All respondents will receive this section of the survey.

SPECIAL TOPIC: Feedback on the CSWE Annual Survey

The Council on Social Work Education (CSWE) is working with the CSWE Commission on Research to review the Annual Survey of Social Work Programs and reporting. The Annual Survey has been conducted since 1952 and is the primary source of data about social work students, graduates, and faculty. We want the input of the social work education community about what aspects of the survey and reporting are most important and potential areas to expand or change. If you are unfamiliar with the longer format Annual Survey, you can find more information about the survey, copies of instruments, and recent reports on the CSWE website.

NOTE: If you need to pause your data submission, please proceed to the next page before closing the page. Once you move to the next page, the system will save your information. To resume completing your survey where you left off, click your original access link.
