

Fostering Optimal Health and Well-being, Equal Human Rights and a Just Society

Social Work Month 2019

Celebrate with Us!

NC Advocacy Day

March 6th | North Carolina Museum of History

This year's focus is to further social workers' knowledge about policy issues in substantive areas of social work practice, teach participants about legislative advocacy, and provide an opportunity for social workers to educate their legislators about the social work profession and important client issues.

Registration www.naswnc.org/event/2019SocialWorkAdvocacyDay

3rd Annual Latinx Mental Health Summit

March 15th | Camino Community Center | 8:30am – 3:00pm

This year's focus will be integration, interconnection & inclusion of cultural and holistic practices with Latinx communities.

Contact Roger Suclupe, Clinical Assistant Program and Part-time MSW Program Coordinator rsuclupe@uncc.edu

Operation Sandwich Presented by the BSW Club in Collaboration with Urban Ministries

March 19th | Popp Martin Student Union | Drop-In from 10am - 2pm

Contact Mario Toruno, BSW Club President mtotuno@uncc.edu

RASE Academy Spring Forum & Panel:

Social Determinants of Justice: Cross Systems Perspective for a Thriving Charlotte Community

March 20th | Center City | 5:30pm – 8:00pm

Judge Ty Hands will provide the Keynote on systemic issues that lead to injustice followed by a Panel Discussion

Registration <https://goo.gl/forms/wiCNefBGIFMcE04K2>

Brown Bag Lecture: Secondary Traumatic Stress: Risk and Prevention for Providers

March 26th | Popp Martin Student Union Room 200 | 12pm – 1pm

Dr. Brian Bride | Distinguished University Professor and Director of School of Social Work, Georgia State University

Registration <https://goo.gl/forms/tZ6LWkbjvAeBPur1>